

PRIVACY POLICY – Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey

OVERVIEW

Our Intent. We are committed to safeguarding the privacy of schools and Data Subjects (you) participating in the 2019 Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey and we will only use the information we collect about your school lawfully.

Changes to Data Protection Legislation. The European Union’s General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the UK Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA 2018), has introduced significant and enhanced rights for Data Subjects, including participating in this audit. This Privacy Notice seeks to outline these rights and also the way personal data is processed in this audit, so that Data Subjects (you) have transparency.

Data Subject’s Privacy Notice. This Privacy Notice should be read by Data Subjects, i.e. “you,” or any identifiable person participating in the 2019 Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey from London Grid for Learning (LGfL).

The Data Controller. The Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey is being conducted by London Grid for Learning (LGfL). Our contact details are:

- Email: dataprotectionenquiries@lgfl.net
- Mail: 9th Floor, 10 Exchange Square, Primrose Street, London, EC2A 2BR.

Data Protection Officer (DPO). LGfL’s DPO can be reached at dataprotectionenquiries@lgfl.net. The LGfL DPO fulfils a number of roles, one of which is to be the primary and independent point of contact for Data Subjects, namely you. If you wish to contact the LGfL DPO, please email or send a letter to our contact details above.

Purpose of Processing Personal Data. The Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey will collect anonymised data to support an audit of current maths approaches in LGfL schools. The collection of data will take place throughout July 2019 and the anonymous Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey statistical results will be reviewed by LGfL in October 2019.

Lawful Basis of Processing Personal Data When Visiting This Website. The lawful basis of processing your personal data when participating in the 2019 Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey is assessed to be: Consent. Once you have agreed to this Privacy Notice, all processing of personal data will be based upon Consent.

Categories of Anonymised Personal Data Processed. The Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey will collect all information in an anonymised form.

Categories of Personal Data Processed by LGfL. The Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey will collect all information in an anonymised form. However, should you wish to register to receive a copy of your answers, the only information that will be collected and processed is:

- Your email address.
- Your name.

The school unique identifier (DfE) is only collected to ensure there are no duplicate entries and to know what borough/region your school is located in.

Data Processing. The Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey results will be initially processed by the LGfL Project Manager to prepare them for statistical analysis, including removing of your school name, your email address (if you have provided it to us) and specific school unique identifiers, as an additional safeguard of anonymity, leading to an anonymous statistical audit.

Data Passed Back to Schools. The person completing the survey will have the option to enter an email address to have their data instantly returned to them, or to be notified that the report into the audit has been completed and to receive a copy of it.

Transfer of Personal Data Outside the EEA (European Economic Area). The Maths Approaches in LGfL Schools Survey will use the Google for Education Suite forms platform. All personal data will be collected and managed within the EEA and transferred to the USA under the EU/US Privacy Shield agreement. All statistical analysis will be conducted on downloaded files on specific UK based computers and servers.

Sensitive Personal Data. There is no Sensitive Personal Data collected and processed in this survey.

Sale or Passing of Personal Data to Third Parties. We will not sell or pass your personal data to any company, other than those described above. However, to support Safeguarding or Law Enforcement investigation, LGfL may be required to pass personal data outside of normal processes, for very specific and limited purposes.

Retention of Personal Data. LGfL will retain the data for one year after the report has been collated and then securely dispose of it.

Data Subject's Rights. Under data protection legislation you have a number of Rights which we have outlined below:

- Right of Access. You are entitled to access your personal data so that you are aware of and can verify the lawfulness of the processing. This is best achieved through submitting a Subject Access Request (SAR). In summary, Data Subject's (you) have the right to obtain:
  - Confirmation that your data is being processed;
  - Access to your personal data (a copy); and
  - Other supplementary information, which corresponds to the information in this Privacy Notice.

Fees and Timings. This information will be provided to you without charge; without delay and within one month. If an extension is required you will be informed of this. If requests are considered manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because they are repetitive, LGfL may choose to:

- Charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information; or
- Refuse to respond.

The reasons for this will be formally notified to you and your rights to appeal to the appropriate Supervisory Authority, i.e. UK Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) <https://ico.org.uk> will be highlighted.

Identify Verification. To protect your personal data, LGfL will seek to verify your identity before releasing any information, which will normally be in electronic format.

- Right of Rectification. You are entitled to have personal data rectified if it is inaccurate or incomplete. If any data held about you is inaccurate or incomplete, LGfL will respond within one month of your request. In the unlikely event LGfL does not act on the request for rectification, LGfL will inform you of your rights to complain or seek judicial remedy.
- Right of Erasure. You may request the deletion or removal of personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing. The Right to Erasure does not provide an absolute 'right to be forgotten.' However, you do have a right to have personal data erased and to prevent processing in specific circumstances:
  - Where the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purpose for which it was originally collected/processed;
  - When you withdraw consent (and this is the basis of processing);
  - When you object to the processing and there is no overriding legitimate interest for continuing the processing;
  - The personal data was unlawfully processed;
  - The personal data has to be erased in order to comply with a legal obligation; and
  - The personal data is processed in relation to the offer of information society services to a child.
- Right to Restrict Processing. When processing is restricted, LGfL are permitted to store the personal data, but not further process it. In this event exactly what is held and why will be explained to you by LGfL.
- Right to Data Portability. You may request to obtain and reuse your personal data for your own purposes across different services. This allows you to move, copy or transfer personal data easily from one IT environment to another in a safe and secure way, without hindrance to usability. The Right to Data Portability only applies:
  - To personal data you have provided to LGfL;

- Where the processing is based on your consent or for the performance of a contract; and
- When processing is carried out by automated means.

In these circumstances LGfL will provide a copy of your data to you in CSV format free of charge, without undue delay and within one month. If there is a delay to this, you will be informed by LGfL.

- Right to Object. You have the Right to Object to:
  - Processing based on legitimate interests or the performance of a task in the public interest/exercise of official authority (including profiling);
  - Direct marketing (including profiling); and
  - Processing for purposes of scientific/historical research and statistics.
- Automated Decision Making and Profiling. LGfL do not employ any automated decision-making or conduct profiling of Data Subjects.

Cookies. This section outlines the type of cookies we apply to the 2019 Maths Approaches Survey. By participating in this audit, you agree your personal information will be handled as described in this Privacy Notice. The cookies we may use in this audit are described as below:
