

SEND

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS AND DISABILITY

These resources are all available at no additional cost to all LGfL schools. These can be accessed through the LGfL site without a username and password when in an LGfL connected school. Use your LGfL USO to access these resources outside school.

J2E

The J2E content creation tools can support pupils with dyspraxia, dyslexia and other areas of SEND, produce work that reflects their ability. It includes word banks, text to speech, and many supportive visual features in tools created for younger pupils (JIT) as well as older ones.

www.j2einfo.lgfl.net

BUSY THINGS

The BETT award-winning 'Busy Things' includes many interactive and multisensory activities that are short, clear, motivating and which provide instant rewards. These resources are especially popular for pupils with SEND of all ages.

www.busythingsinfo.lgfl.net

EBOOKS

Rising Stars publishes a range of fiction, non-fiction and plays that are ideal for reluctant and struggling readers. We're delighted to offer one title from each series as a free eBook download for LGfL schools.

www.ebooksinfo.lgfl.net

AUDIO NETWORKS

Audio Network contains an extensive collection of songs which can be searched by categories which include mood and atmosphere. It helps staff use music to support a child with SEND access a habitat, a genre , a period in history or even just to help them relax.

www.aninfo.lgfl.net

EMPLOYABILITY RESOURCES

Multimedia resources designed to develop employability skills and to support literacy and numeracy for secondary schools. These resources have been produced for LGfL by AXIS Education.

www.employability.lgfl.net

LOOK THINK DO

Look, Think, Do

This resource includes editable photo resources created in London schools to support pupils with social communication difficulties in the areas of Learning to Play, Learning to Say, Learning to Help Yourself and Learning to Change.

www.ltdinfo.lgfl.net

SEND

SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS AND DISABILITY

These resources are all available at no additional cost to all LGfL schools. These can be accessed through the LGfL site without a username and password when in an LGfL connected school. Use your LGfL USO to access these resources outside school.

SEN ASSIST

SEN Assist's Fairytales and Early Shakespeare resources incorporate specialist principles, clear and engaging visuals and a range of multisensory activities which can be differentiated.

www.esinfo.lgfl.net www.fairytalesinfo.lgfl.net

WIDGIT SYMBOLS

Widgit

Widgit Symbols are simply drawn, colourful symbols designed to illustrate a single concept in a clear and concise way. Already used by many SEND specialists, the entire symbol database of over 15,000 images and 1,000 worksheets are now available to all LGfL TRUSTnet schools to search and download.

www.widgit.lgfl.net

WORDQ SPEAKQ

WordQ SpeakQ is an easy-to-use and powerful literacy tool that helps young people who can type, but have trouble with writing, grammar and spelling. It includes Word Prediction, Speech Recognition and Spoken Feedback and it can be installed on staff, pupil or school computers.

www.wordqspeakq.lgfl.net

INCLUSIVE RESOURCES

Beautifully illustrated PowerPoints for Literacy, Maths, PSHE and Science. Artist and teacher Nick Wonham from The Bridge School in North London created these inclusive and engaging resources to support students with severe learning difficulties who are working at P Levels

www.inclusiveresources.lgfl.net

ADOLESCENT RESILIENCE

Young people's emotional health and wellbeing affects their immediate and longer term physical and social health and influences their capacity to learn and achieve academically. LGfL has worked with Public Health England to identify a series of resources, research, links and ideas to help schools build on adolescent resilience.

www.adres.lgfl.net

WHO AM I

Did you know that you can make logging onto LGfL easier using the Whoami system? In school, children can simply choose their class, gender and first initial which allows them to the login page where their username is pre-filled for them.

www.whoamiinfo.lgfl.net