FIVE WAYS TO SUPPORT SEND AT THE START OF THE YEAR

5ways.lgfl.net

Look, Think, Do

Created with and for many primary learners with autism who struggle with social communication skills. This resource includes editable photo and symbol-based stories and skills sequences to support areas within Play, Say, Change and Helping Yourself. Ltd.lgfl.net

HEALTHY
MINDS

If you have students with SEMH issues you may find many of the new mental health resources are extremely supportive. Healthy Minds, for example, includes a range of 20 minute resilience activities as part of an ongoing programme and staff CPD materials are included. More materials in this area will follow.

Grammar
Explained

Many inclusion staff will be organising a range of Literacy and Numeracy intervention groups; Grammar Explained and Maths at Home are helpful for these groups as well as the Literacy and Numeracy resources in the ever popular grammer.lgfl.net

Widgit

Over 15,000 symbols can be downloaded for you to use in your own resources, with more than 1,000 ready-made activity sheets also available covering many areas of the curriculum, along with prompts and resources for supporting communication. Widgit.lgfl.net

Busy
Things

Online training units to support practitioners working with black and minority ethnic (BME) children and those learning English as an additional language (EAL) The EAL materials can enhance staff practice, whilst the young interpreter scheme at www.yis.lgfl.net helps you to implement a buddy support programme. www.eal.lgfl.net

The aim of 5 ways is to showcase five ways to use LGfL resources across the curriculum that you can take and use and share. They can be shared in the staff room, or within an INSET session.
