THE TRAINER

KATE BRADLEY

Kate is Inclusion Leader at Netley Primary School & Centre for Autism and is a dual qualified teacher and occupational therapist. Holding an MA in special and inclusive education and a postgraduate certificate in sensory integration theory, Kate supports and trains staff to meet the needs of learners in both mainstream and specialist settings combining academic requirements with the functional skills children need to acquire to succeed.

CLAIRE BREWERS

Claire has 10 years experience of developing creative and motivating lessons as an SEN teacher. Being the co-author of '101 Inclusive and SEN Maths Lessons: Fun Activities and Lesson Plans for P-level Learning' gave her the opportunity to draw on her years of experience to share her creative, and often messy!, approach to teaching maths.

OVERVIEW

The course will include strategies and resources to make Maths accessible as well as current research and trends.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This one day training day is valuable for:
■ Any staff supporting pupils with SEND to access Maths at primary level and/or in specialist provisions.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

By the end of the session you will have received support on:

- ✓ Making Maths accessible and then looking at current research and trends
- ✓ Developing independent Maths learning
- ✓ Active Maths
- ✓ Using inclusive LGfL Maths resources to support data and more

HOW WILL IT CHANGE MY TEACHING?

The course will enable you to learn strategies and use resources to make Maths accessible for learners with SEND.
