OVERVIEW

Our learning-resource portfolio is often described as a treasure trove; do colleagues at your school know what's in it?

Those attending this course can expect a detailed introduction to the wide range of content for teachers in LGfL schools that spans the Primary curriculum.

They will also be given an overview of the technological tools available for transformational teaching across all subjects and Key Stages, (e.g. video platform, audio database and QR code creation and use).

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

'Discover the world of LGfL online learning resources' is ideal for learning-support assistants who would like to better support pupils in one-to-one and whole-class environments.

SLT (or any other!) colleagues who would like to know more about the portfolio are also more than welcome to attend.

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

- ✓ An overview of the main LGfL resources that can be used by all Primary teachers (and how to find them)
- ✓ Adopting a truly cross-curricular topic approach for an integrated curriculum
- ✓ The effective use of technology in the classroom, e.g. QR codes
- ✓ Making the most of the school-safe VideoCentral HD system
- ✓ AudioNetwork: high-quality, legal music
- ✓ Literacy and numeracy for all, including using author videos to inspire reading

HOW WILL IT CHANGE MY TEACHING?

You will go away with an in-depth knowledge of the resources that can enrich teaching & learning for them and for their colleagues.

The course will allow you to make the most of the high-quality, exciting learning resources you have already subscribed to, in order to drive progress and attainment.

THE TRAINER

BOB USHER

Bob is the LGfL Content Manager, responsible for overseeing the strategy that informs which resources LGfL invests in on behalf of schools.

He chairs the Teaching & Learning Group of the National Education Network, playing a key role in informing curriculum strategy at a national level for our sister grids.

MARK BENTLEY

Based in the LGfL offices in New Malden, Mark works on the Content Team, sourcing, supporting and developing new learning resources for online safety and across the entire curriculum.

Before joining the LGfL fold, Mark was a MFL specialist, and is soon to embark upon a new suite of LGfL languages resources.
