

USING INCLUSIVE RESOURCES FROM LGFL: GENERAL TRAINING

A chance to explore the many diverse and inclusive LGfL resources which can be used to maximise the learning and development of pupils with SEND in your school. Suitable for Primary AND Secondary provisions.

OVERVIEW

The course will include training on a range of inclusive resources and how they can be used to support pupils with SEND. The full day course will include:

- hands on training
- overview of case studies and school based examples of use
- whole and small group discussions on how you may use these resources to support your pupils with SEND.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This one day training day is valuable for:

- SENDCOs and inclusion managers
- Teachers and teaching assistants supporting pupils with SEND
- Speech and language therapists
- Any other staff with an interest in supporting pupils with SEND

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

By the end of the day you will know how you can incorporate the use of the following resources into your practice in order to support the needs of learners with SEND:

- ✓ WordQ SpeakQ, an easy-to-use and powerful literacy tool that helps young people who can type, but have trouble with writing, grammar and spelling. It includes Word Prediction, Speech Recognition and Spoken Feedback and it can be installed on staff, pupil or school computers
- ✓ Widgeit, a database of visual symbols and accessible worksheets to support learners access information, learn and communicate
- ✓ SEN Assist's award winning Early Shakespeare and Fairytales
- ✓ Audio Network, a database of music tracks that support multisensory learning
- ✓ LookThink Do, a social communication resource created in London
- ✓ J2E content creation tools which include inclusive features to support those with SEND produce work that reflects their ability.
- ✓ The BETT award-winning 'Busy Things'
- ✓ Other materials including The Talking Stories, Ebooks and Early Vision materials as well as Whoami log ins and video conferencing tools

The session will also include information about upcoming SEND specific materials.

HOW WILL IT CHANGE MY TEACHING?

The course will provide you with knowledge of a range of materials to enable inclusive and multisensory learning in your school. It will enable you to support many different areas of SEND within your school, such as cognition and learning, communication and interaction, sensory and physical development and social, emotional and mental health.

Date: 21 March 2017
Time: 9.30am - 3.30pm
Venue: Camden CLC
Cost: Normally £299+VAT
FREE to teachers from
LGfL TRUSTnet schools

Browse our courses and book a place at
training.lgfl.net

THE TRAINER

JO DILWORTH

Jo Dilworth is the LGfL SEND consultant. She has worked with the LGfL community since 2002, most recently developing the Look, Think, Do resource for students with autism.

A qualified teacher with a post-graduate certificate in autism, Jo has supported pupils with SEND in both mainstream and specialist schools, and publishes a termly newsletter for the SEND education community.

She works alongside John Galloway (Tower Hamlets) and the LGfL team and Editorial Board to evaluate, procure and develop SEND-related content.

SEND play a role in Jo's life beyond office hours, too, as she helps to run support groups for parents of girls with autism.

Secure your limited place now: training.lgfl.net